1 Introduction and aims

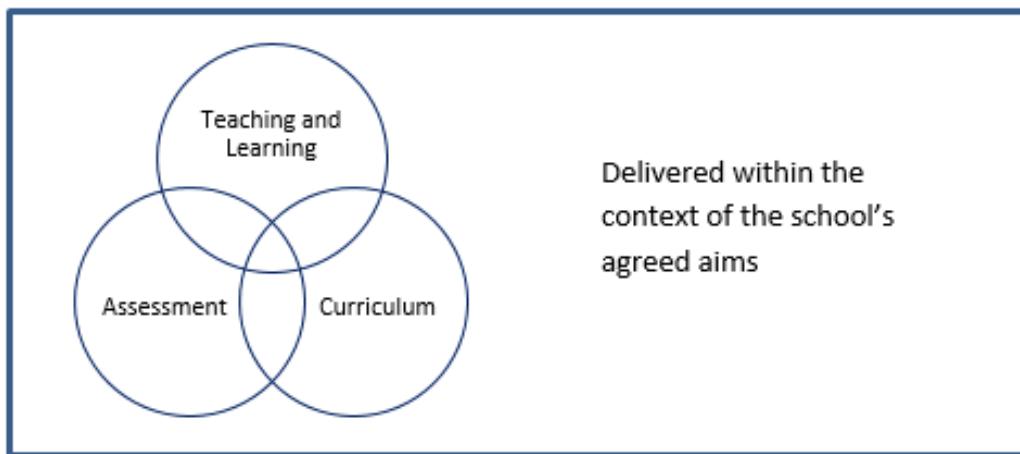

Schools and colleges play a crucial role in preventative education. Preventative education is most effective in the context of a whole-school or college approach that prepares pupils and students for life in modern Britain and creates a culture of zero tolerance for sexism, misogyny/misandry, homo/bi/trans phobia and sexual violence/harassment. This policy applies to all pupils, including those in the Early Years.

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that our Relationships Education and Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) supports our school ethos and fulfils our school aims, which are defined as:

- giving every child the chance to develop their full potential in all areas;
- supporting them to become confident and caring individuals, who are proactive and independent;
- providing enriching opportunities, so they gain greater awareness of themselves, their community and the wider world.

1.1 This policy forms part of the curriculum.

1.2 We see the curriculum as, 'The total learning experience for our pupils, which includes not only the taught lessons but also the routines, behaviours, events, activities and other opportunities that our pupils experience on a daily, weekly and yearly basis in order to ensure that all of them make the best progress possible and attain high standards'.

1.3 A well-structured and coherent curriculum is a fundamental element of the tripartite education that underpins all successful schools and includes Teaching, Learning and Assessment (see model below) and is underpinned by Wellbeing.

The aims of RSE at our school are to:

- 1.4 Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place.
- 1.5 Prepare pupils for puberty, and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene.
- 1.6 Help pupils develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy.

Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) Policy

- 1.7 Create a positive culture around sexuality and relationships.
- 1.8 Teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies.
- 1.9 Help pupils understand that healthy relationships are an important part of wellbeing.
- 1.10 Prevent pupils from becoming involved in child-on-child abuse, and/or experiencing harm in school/the community.

2 Statutory requirements

- 2.1 Our policy follows the statutory guidance given by the government (DfE) and meets the requirements of the Independent School Standards. Aspects of RSE are infused within the day to day operation of our school; incorporated through the curriculum, both in content included in subject schemes of work and through other planned learning opportunities in the school. They are captured in our written aims and expressed in the ethos and behaviours of everyone.
- 2.2 As a Preparatory school, we must ensure that every registered pupil who is provided with primary education at the school is provided with relationships education, in accordance with section 34 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017 and the Independent School Standards
- 2.3 As a Secondary school, we must ensure that every registered pupil who is provided with secondary education at the school is provided with relationships and sex education, except in so far as the pupil is excused as mentioned in sub-paragraph 9, in accordance with section 34 of Children and Social Work Act 2017 and the Independent School Standards, and with regard to guidance outlined in section 403 of the Education Act 1996.

At Hydesville Tower School, we teach RSE as set out in this policy.

3 Policy development

This policy has been developed in consultation with staff, pupils and parents. The consultation and policy development process involved the following steps:

- Review – The PSHE Lead reviewed all relevant information, including but not limited to, relevant national and local guidance including regard to the school's obligations under the Human Rights Act 1998, the Equality Act 2010, (including the Public Sector Equality Duty), and their local multi-agency safeguarding arrangements.
- The policy was drafted in accordance with statutory guidance and aligned with the Independent School Regulations/BSO Standards. The school curriculum plans were amended accordingly.
- Staff consultation – relevant school staff were given the opportunity to review the policy and make recommendations.
- Parent/stakeholder consultation – parents and any interested parties were invited to attend a meeting about the policy and offer commentary.
- Pupil consultation – pupils were consulted with about their RSE lessons as part of pupil voice
- Ratification – once amendments were made, the policy was published.

- Policy review – this policy will be reviewed in September 2023.

4 Definition

- 4.1 RSE is about the emotional, social and cultural development of pupils, and involves learning about relationships, sexual health, sexuality, healthy lifestyles, diversity and personal identity.
- 4.2 RSE involves a combination of sharing information and exploring issues and values.
- 4.3 RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity, sexual orientation, or a specific sexual identity.

5 Curriculum

- 5.1 Our curriculum is set out in Appendix 1, but we may need to adapt this as and when necessary.
- 5.2 We have developed the curriculum in consultation with parents, pupils and staff, taking into account the age, needs and feelings of pupils.
- 5.3 Primary sex education will focus on:
 - Preparing boys and girls for the changes that adolescence brings, including emotional changes; and
 - How a baby is conceived and born (Science- Year 5, Summer Term)It will:
 - i. consider the ages, aptitudes and needs of all pupils, including those pupils with SEND/ and an EHC plan;
 - ii. not undermine the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs; and
 - iii. ensure that discriminatory, extremist opinions or behaviours are challenged as a matter of routine.
- 5.4 For more information about our curriculum, see Appendices 1 and 2 and our Curriculum Policy

6 Delivery of RSE

- 6.1 Our RSE is taught as part of our PSHE curriculum. The PSHE course is delivered to all pupils through discrete PSHE lessons taught by our teachers. There is one lesson of taught PSHE a week. Elements of the programme may be supported through the bringing in of additional expertise, such as outside speakers, trained health professionals, or the use of teachers with a particular interest or knowledge in a specific area. In addition to these discrete sessions, PSHE is also embedded within the curriculum (e.g. social issues through the teaching of English Literature; Health through Biology and PE; Citizenship through History & RE). There are also centrally organised sessions which supplement the delivery in house.
- 6.2 Relationships education focuses on teaching the fundamental building blocks and characteristics of positive relationships, including:
 - Families and people who care for me
 - Caring friendships
 - Respectful relationships
 - Online relationships
 - Being safe

- 6.3 For more information about our RSE curriculum, see Appendices 1 and 2 and our Curriculum Policy.
- 6.4 RSE focuses on giving young people the information they need to help them develop healthy, nurturing relationships of all kinds, including:
 - Families
 - Respectful relationships, including friendships
 - Online and media
 - Being safe
 - Intimate and sexual relationships, including sexual health
- 6.5 For more information about our RSE curriculum, see Appendices 1 and 2 and our Curriculum Policy.
- 6.6 These areas of learning are taught within the context of family life, taking care to ensure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances (families can include single parent families, LGBTQ+ parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents, foster parents/carers amongst other structures), along with reflecting sensitively that some children may have a different structure of support around them (for example: looked after children or young carers).

7 Roles and responsibilities

Staff & Governance

7.1 PSHE Lead Teacher

The people with responsibility for PSHE and the overview and yearly evaluation of this policy are Leanne Crump (Prep) and Liz Shaw, Sarah Harding and Danni Fairbrother (Senior). However, all staff are responsible for ensuring this policy is implemented and acted on.

When evaluating the use and impact of this policy, our school leaders will evaluate the extent to which there is evidence of a curriculum which:

- Fulfils the aims of the school;
- Embeds aspiration, attributes and the expectation to achieve high standards and high rates of progress; and
- Provides engagement and excitement for learning.

7.2 The Headteacher

The Headteacher is responsible for ensuring that RSE is taught consistently across the school, and for managing requests to withdraw pupils from non-statutory or non-science components of RSE (see section 8).

7.3 The Chair of Governors

The Director of Education will hold the Headteacher to account for the implementation of this policy.

The Chair of Governors will ensure that:

- all pupils make progress in achieving the expected educational outcomes;
- the subjects are well led, effectively managed and well planned;
- the quality of provision is subject to regular and effective self-evaluation;
- teaching is delivered in ways that are accessible to all pupils with SEND;
- clear information is provided for parents on the subject content and the right to request that their child is withdrawn; and,

Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) Policy

- the subjects are resourced, staffed and timetabled in a way that ensures that the school can fulfil its legal obligations.

7.4 Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Delivering RSE in a sensitive way;
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSE;
- Monitoring progress;
- Responding to the needs of individual pupils; and
- Responding appropriately to pupils whose parents wish them to be withdrawn from the non-statutory or non-science components of RSE.

Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching RSE. Staff who have concerns about teaching RSE are encouraged to discuss this with the Headteacher.

8 Pupils

Pupils are expected to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity.

8.1 Pupils with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities

Our curriculum is inclusive and our RSE and Health Education is accessible for all pupils. For those pupils with special educational needs or specific learning difficulties, the school has a well-established Learning Support department, led by the SENDCO. Further details of this provision can be found in our Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Policy.

High quality teaching that is differentiated and personalised will be the starting point to ensure accessibility.

As set out in the SEND code of practice, when teaching these subjects to those with SEND, Hydesville Tower School is mindful of preparing pupils for adulthood.

Hydesville Tower School is aware that some pupils are more vulnerable to exploitation, bullying and other issues due to the nature of their SEND. Relationships Education and RSE can also be particularly important subjects for some pupils; for example those with Social, Emotional and Mental Health needs or learning disabilities. Such factors will be taken into consideration in designing and teaching these subjects.

9 Parents' right to withdraw

- 9.1 If parents require more information on RSE for primary aged children, this is a useful information source of information for them:

https://assets.publishing.service.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/812593/RSE_primary_schools_guide_for_parents.pdf

- 9.2 If parents require more information on RSE for secondary aged children, this is a useful information source of information for them:

https://assets.publishing.service.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/812594/RSE_secondary_schools_guide_for_parents.pdf

- 9.3 Parents in the Prep School do not have the right to withdraw their children from relationships education.

Parents have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory or non-science components of sex education within RSE.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in Appendix 3 of this policy and addressed to the Headteacher.

Alternative work will be given to pupils who are withdrawn from sex education.

- 9.4 Parents have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory or non-science components of sex education within RSE up to and until 3 terms before the child turns 16. After this point, if the child wishes to receive sex education rather than being withdrawn, the school will arrange this.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in Appendix 3 of this policy and addressed to the Headteacher.

A copy of withdrawal requests will be placed in the pupil's educational record. The Headteacher will discuss the request with parents and take appropriate action.

Alternative work will be given to pupils who are withdrawn from sex education.

10 Training

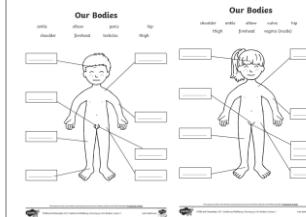

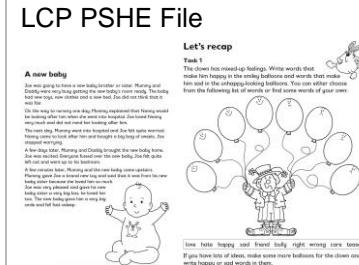

- 10.1 Staff are trained on the delivery of RSE as part of their induction and it is included in our continuing professional development programme.
- 10.2 The Headteacher will also invite visitors from outside the school, such as school nurses or sexual health professionals, to provide support and training to staff teaching RSE.

11 Monitoring arrangements

- 11.1 The delivery of RSE is monitored by the Head of Prep and the Head of Senior School through lesson observations, learning walks, pupil voice and work scrutiny.
- 11.2 Pupils' development in RSE is monitored by class teachers as part of our internal assessment systems.
- 11.3 Communication is sent out to all parents regarding the RSE curriculum.

Year 2	Autumn 1 & 2	Feelings and relationships Children will be introduced to the concepts of feelings and relationships. The purpose of this unit is to help pupils to realise that it is normal to experience a range of emotions and to develop a vocabulary through which they can express anger, anxiety, fear, happiness, sadness, shock, tension and other feelings. They will look at ways to cope with change in their lives, and deal with the sad and stressful circumstances that at some stage affect us all. By achieving a better understanding of their own emotions, feelings and problems, they are more likely to appreciate those of other children and to be able to empathise with them. They will also look to develop skills for forming relationships and working in a co-operative manner. Such skills enable them to recognise the views, needs and rights of others	 LCP PSHE File

		Puberty discussion This is usually delivered by our senior school biology department or the school nurse, alongside the class teachers. The group will be split by gender, where a discussion about puberty and the changes their bodies go through will take place.
Year 6	Summer Term	Feelings and Relationships: Love, sex and marriage These sessions tackle some of the emotional, physical and social aspects of growing up. The physical aspects of the subject, notably human sexuality, reproduction and sexual health, are taught in science lessons, but PSHE provides an opportunity to prepare children for the physical and emotional changes they undergo at puberty and to discuss relationships with them. Many children want to learn more about issues ranging from attraction to love, from trust, to response, to peer pressure. They need to be equipped with information about how to behave in relationships and what they can do to make them work. Children will be taught: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to talk and write about their opinions, and explain their views, on issues that affect themselves and society; • to recognise, as they approach puberty, how people's emotions change at that time and how to deal with their feelings in a positive way; • to recognise their worth as individuals; • to be aware of different types of relationships, including marriage and those between friends and families, and to develop the skills needed to be effective in relationships; • that marriage plays an important role within most religions and societies; • about how and why tension can develop between married couples. 	LCP PSHE File

Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) Policy

Appendix 5: Letter to Parents

Dear Parents and Carers,

PSHE Scheme: RSE

As part of our PSHE provision to pupils, we deliver a comprehensive Relationships and Health Education curriculum. Our main goal is to ensure that all children learn about different relationships, diverse families, physical and mental health, and the importance of staying safe. As part of our RSE curriculum, we have four main aims:

1. Enable children to understand and respect their bodies.
2. Help children develop positive and healthy relationships appropriate to their age and development.
3. Support children in building positive self-esteem and a healthy body image.
4. Empower them to be safe and safeguarded in their daily lives.

Each year group will be taught according to their age and developmental stage, ensuring that nothing inappropriate is introduced at any point. If a child asks a question that is deemed too mature or explicit for their age group, our teachers will handle it discreetly and communicate with you, the parents or carers. Below is a summary of the RSE coverage within the scheme for each year group:

- Foundation Stage - Growing up: how we have changed since we were babies.
- Year 1 - Boys' and girls' bodies; naming body parts and respecting privacy (which parts of the body are private and why this is).
- Year 3 - How babies grow and how boys' and girls' bodies change as they grow older.
- Year 5 - Internal and external reproductive body parts, body changes in girls and menstruation. Puberty for boys and girls.
- Year 6 - Puberty for boys and girls and understanding conception to birth of a baby (science curriculum).

We want to emphasise that parents and carers do not have the right to withdraw their children from lessons that cover statutory Relationships and Health Education objectives or national curriculum science objectives. This ensures that all children have access to essential information on puberty and how the human body changes.

Our Relationships, Health, and Sex Education is fully inclusive to meet the needs of all our pupils. We firmly believe that all children should learn about these important life skills in an open, honest, and safe environment, tailored to their age group.

I would encourage you to reach out to your child's class teacher if you would like more information about our curriculum. Additionally, you can view our Relationships and Sex Education Policy on our school website.

As a school, we believe in maintaining a strong partnership with parents and carers. We will always communicate the topics being taught through termly curriculum plans. If you have any questions or would like further support to discuss the objectives taught with your children at home, we are here to provide the necessary resources and guidance.

Thank you for your ongoing support in ensuring our children receive a well-rounded education that equips them with essential life skills.

Kind regards,

Miss Leanne Crump
Prep PSHE Coordinator
